Sir:-

You are directed to proceed to such points in this section as you may deem advisable or the best for the purpose, and ascertain where the bucks and school herd authorized by the Indian Office can be procured. You will examine such stock as may be available accepting informal offers from owners for the furnishing of the same; a record of all such and all other items of interest that may be of benefit to the service to be kept on the journey and filed in this office for future reference, together with a detailed statement of the expenses incurred.

Respectfully
D. A. Riordan
Agent.
