REPRODUCED FROM THE HOLDINGS OF THE NATIONAL ARCHIVES - LOS ANGELES BRANCH

EXHIBIT A

Statements of Navajo Indians residing within the Leupp jurisdiction "Castle Butte Country" showing that their ancestors occupied that country before the coming of the white man. When taken captive in 1863, they were taken from that country soon after their return in 1868. They returned to that country and have occupied it continuously since that time.

21-x