REPRODUCED FROM THE HOLDINGS OF THE NATIONAL ARCHIVES - LOS ANGELES BRANCH

I, Ta Ah Jhoshi, a Navajo Indian, have lived in this Butte Country about forty years. I was born near Selina Springs about 59 years ago, and moved to this country when about 19 years of age. I was alloted near Black Rock, and my children were alloted there. We have about 300 head of sheep. I had 275 head a year ago; ~~XXXX~~ we lost lots of sheep last winter, but new lambs more than made up the loss. I heard that white men want this country, and last summer I rode all over the Indian country to see where I could go if this land were to be taken away from us. I did not find any place to go; every place is now occupied by Navajos.
