Navajo Agency

Fort Defiance, Arizona October, 10, 1899

Received, of GEORGE BUTLER, Superintendant of Irigation

For the Navajo Reservation,

The Red Lake Irrigating system Completed consisting of Dam across Black creek, with east side ditch about three fourths of mile long with head gate, head gate to red lake feed ditch, & Ditch also Dyke, along base of lake, also Red lake ditch, about two and one galf miles in length, with necessary gates and flumes.

Very Respectfully,

G W Hayzlett

U S Indian Agent

not abstracted

REPRODUCED FROM THE HOLDINGS OF THE NATIONAL ARCHIVES - LOS ANGELES BRANCH