Irrigation

W B H

Apportionment.

April 4, 1910.

Mr. H. F. Robinson,

Superintendent of Irrigation,

Albuquerque, New Mexico.

Sir:

Owing to the limited amount which is now available in the fund "Irrigation Indian Reservations, 1910", you have been apportioned the following amounts to be expended during the fiscal year 1910 in connection with the various projects under your general supervision:

Navajo and Moqui,	$25,000.00
Pueblos,	1,000.00
Zuni,	25,000.00
Southern Utes,	2,000.00
Jicarilla,	1,000.00
Salary, per diem, and traveling expenses, Superintendent,	4,104.00
Regular positions,	11,[illegible]
Rent of office, 1910,	[illegible]	$[illegible].00

Special authorities in accordance with the above apportionments will probably be issued by the Indian Office for expenditures during the fiscal year 1910, in lieu of all other authorities previously granted you for said purposes, to date, and to avoid creating a deficiency in said irrigation fund you are expectly requested to limit the expenditures incident to the various projects under your supervision to the above stated amounts.

Very respectfully,

[signature]

Acting Chief Engineer.
