GENERAL ORDERS, No. 93.

HEADQUARTERS OF THE ARMY,
ADJUTANT GENERAL'S OFFICE,
Washington, May 24, 1893.

By direction of the Secretary of War the following is promulgated for the information and guidance of all concerned:

By authority of the President of the United States, dated May 14, 1893, the military reservation at Fort Huachuca, Arizona Territory (originally declared by Executive Order of October 29, 1891, and promulgated in General Orders, No. 85, Headquarters Department of Arizona, series of 1891), is enlarged to embrace the following described limits, viz:

Beginning at a post marked U. S. M. R., No. 1, set in a mound of stone on a conical butte in the northern foot-hills of the Huachuca Mountains, which butte is about 6 miles distant from the post of Fort Huachuca, on the road to Hereford, and about 500 yards south of said road, and running thence north, 1° 55′ east, 237.11 chains, to a post marked U. S. M. R., No. 2, which post coincides in position with a post marked S. I. R., No. 8, of the southern boundary of the Babocomari grant, as surveyed by S. M. Allen; thence north, 88° 55′ east, along the southern boundary of said grant, 324.74 chains, to a post marked U. S. M. R., No. 3, near to and west of the road from Fort Huachuca to Huachuca Station, on the New Mexico and Arizona Railroad; thence south, 21° 41′ east, 511.71 chains, to a post marked U. S. M. R., No. 4; thence south, 60° 41′ east, [illegible] chains, to a post marked U. S. M. R., No. 5, near to and west of the road from Tanner's Cañon to Charleston; thence south, 86° 15′ west, 251.04 chains, to a post marked U. S. M. R., No. 6, set in a mound of stone on the foot-hills of the Huachuca Mountains, between Tanner's and Ramsey's Cañons; thence along the water-shed separating these cañons to the main water-shed of the Huachuca Mountains; thence along this water-shed to the point of beginning.

BY COMMAND OF GENERAL SHERMAN:

R. C. DRUM,
Adjutant General.

OFFICIAL:

Assistant Adjutant General.
