Mr. KING. Mr. President, I wish to inquire of the Senator from Arizona if this bill has to do with an Indian reservation.

Mr. HAYDEN. Mr. President, the bill adds about 22,000 acres to the Navajo Indian Reservation by exchange of lands within a checkerboard of alternate sections owned by private parties and used for sheep grazing. The private parties have complained bitterly that the Indians occupying the other sections of the checkerboard have so utilized their land that they can obtain no revenue from it. This bill authorizes a surrender of these private lands to become a part of the Navajo Indian Reservation, and permits the private landowners to select about 22,000 acres of land elsewhere in the State of Arizona under regulations made by the Secretary of the Interior.

Mr. KING. Of the same quality?

Mr. HAYDEN. Of the same value. The values to be exchanged are identical.

Mr. KING. Are these lands owned by the Santa Fe Railroad?

Mr. HAYDEN. No; the lands mentioned in the bill were originally granted to the Atlantic & Pacific Railroad Co., but are owned at the present time by Campbell, Francis & Co., of Flagstaff, Ariz.

The bill was ordered to be engrossed for a third reading, read the third time, and passed.
