ADJUDICATION OF CONFLICTING CLAIMS OF NAVAHO AND HOPI INDIANS

The Senate proceeded to consider the bill (S. 692) to provide that the United States hold in trust for the Indians entitled to the use thereof the lands described in Executive order of December 16, 1882, and for adjudicating the conflicting claims thereto of the Navaho and Hopi Indians, and for other purposes, which had been reported from the Committee on Interior and Insular Affairs, with amendments on page 1, line 5, after the word "the", to strike out "Indians who are entitled to be thereon" and insert "Hopi Indians and such other Indians as heretofore have been settled thereon by the Secretary of the Interior"; on page 2, at the beginning of line 14, to insert "pursuant to such Executive order"; in line 22, after "Sec. 2.", to strike out "Any lands" and insert "Lands, if any.,"; in line 25, after the word "Reservation", to strike out "Any lands" and insert "Lands, if any.,"; on page 3, at the beginning of line 5, to strike out "If the court determines that the said Navaho Tribe, Hopi Tribe, including any Hopi village or clan thereof, or individual Indians have a joint or undivided interest in any part of the lands subject to section 1 of this act, the court shall determine the reservation to which such lands shall be added as in its opinion shall be fair, just, and equitable.,"; at the beginning of line 18, to insert "tribal or individual"; and, in line 19, after the word "Act", to insert a comma and "or to affect the liability of the United States, if any, under litigation now pending before the Indian Claims Commission"; so as to make the bill read:

Be it enacted, etc., That the lands described in the Executive order dated December 16, 1882, are hereby declared to be held by the United States in trust for the Hopi Indians and such other Indians as heretofore have been settled thereon by the Secretary of the Interior pursuant to such Executive order. The Navaho Indian Tribe and the Hopi Indian Tribe, acting through the chairmen of their respective tribal councils for and on behalf of said tribes, including all villages and clans thereof, and on behalf of any Navaho or Hopi Indians claiming an interest in the area set aside by executive order dated December 16, 1882, and the Attorney General on behalf of the United States, are each hereby authorized to commence or defend in the United States District Court for the District of Arizona an action against each other and any other tribe or Indians claiming any interest in or to the area described in such Executive order for the purpose of determining the rights and interest of said parties in and to said lands and quieting title thereto in the tribes or Indians establishing such claims pursuant to such Executive order as may be just and fair in law and equity. The action shall be heard and determined by a district court of three judges in accordance with the provisions of title 28, United States Code, section 2284, except that no judge from the State of Arizona shall serve thereon, and any party may appeal directly to the Supreme Court from the final determination by such three-judge district court.

Sec. 2. Lands, if any, in which the Navaho Indian Tribe or individual Navaho Indians are determined by the court to have the exclusive interest shall thereafter be a part of the Navaho Indian Reservation. Lands, if any, in which the Hopi Indian Tribe, including any Hopi village or clan thereof, or individual Hopi Indians are determined by the court to have the exclusive interest shall thereafter be a reservation for the Hopi

Indian Tribe. The Navaho and Hopi Tribes, respectively, are authorized to sell, buy, or exchange any lands within their reservations with the approval of the Secretary of the Interior, and any such lands acquired by either tribe through purchase or exchange shall become a part of the reservation of such tribe.

Sec. 3. Nothing in this act shall be deemed to be a Congressional determination of the merits of the conflicting tribal or individual Indian claims to the lands that are subject to adjudication pursuant to this act, or to affect the liability of the United States, if any, under litigation now pending before the Indian Claims Commission.

The amendments were agreed to.

The bill was ordered to be engrossed for a third reading, read the third time, and passed.
