RECEIVED
MAY 29 1947
Phoenix Arizona

clearly marked, "Special requisition submitted in compliance with section III, WD Circular 124, 1947."

c. Each oversea theater will cable The Adjutant General, Attention: AGAM-D, their requirements of each form, together with an air priority in order that follow-up shipments to those indicated in paragraph 2a above may be made.

4. Adjutant general publications depots and air materiel area publications distribution branches will establish back orders on all requisitions submitted in accordance with paragraph 3a and b. Immediately upon receipt of stocks in depots, all back orders will be filled and shipped by the most expeditious means available. All depots will exercise extreme care in packaging these forms to avoid damage in transit.

5. The Adjutant General is procuring quantities of these forms which are expected to cover Army-wide requirements for a minimum of 12 months. Therefore, all requisitioning agencies are enjoined to requisition carefully in order to avoid exhausting national stocks prematurely. Depot commanders will edit requisitions downward where indicated.

6. Each installation (ZI) which has requisitioned a supply of these forms and has not received them prior to 25 June 1947 will, on that date, TWX the appropriate adjutant general publications depot or air materiel area publication distribution branch, stating their requirements for each form. The depot commander will take necessary action to supply a quantity of each form by regular mail special delivery.

7. Existing stocks of enlisted separation forms currently in use will not be salvaged pending receipt of further instructions.

[AG 315 (13 Mar 47)]

IV. INSTALLATION.—1. Effective 1 June 1947, the Ogden Adjutant General Regional Records Office, a class II installation under The Adjutant General, located at the Scowcroft Building, Ogden, Utah, will be redesignated the San Francisco Adjutant General Regional Records Office, with location at Building 120, Oakland Army Base, Oakland, California. The functions, equipment, and records of the Ogden Adjutant General Regional Records Office are transferred to the San Francisco Adjutant General Regional Records Office, effective on the above date.

2. Effective immediately and until 1 July 1947, installations and headquarters which under current instructions (app. II, TM 12-259) retire noncurrent records to the Ogden Adjutant General Regional Records Office, will retire no records without prior concurrence and shipping instructions from the commanding officer, Ogden (or, after 1 June 1947, San Francisco) Adjutant General Regional Records Office.

3. Effective 1 July 1947, installations and headquarters which under current instructions (app. II, TM 12-259) retire noncurrent records to the Ogden Adjutant General Regional Records Office will retire such records to the San Francisco Adjutant General Regional Records Office. Requests for information from files previously retired to the Ogden Adjutant General Regional Records Office will be addressed to the San Francisco Adjutant General Regional Records Office, on and after 1 June 1947.
