Subject: revised fish re-intro story

Hi all:

Attached is a new version of the Muleshoe fish re-introduction story, this one more “adventure” focused. Nature.org will run it as one of its top features. When? I’m not sure.

I’m also submitting a video and slide show (to include some of Clif’s photos from Redfield Canyon). I couldn’t have written this story without the wonderful narrative details provided by Bob and Ken. You guys are priceless to a writer.

Let me know if you have any corrections or suggestions. Thanks.

Tana
