

ber of dependents, subject to the limitations of paragraph (d) of this section.

(4) Applicants otherwise eligible to enlist in pay grades E-5, E-6 and E-7 may be enlisted without regard to number of dependents, subject to the limitations of paragraph (d) of this section.

(5) Waiver requests are authorized in subparagraphs (2) and (3) of this paragraph only in exceptional cases of unusual financial stability and income not based on gratuities of money or support from relatives or upon the assumption that the wife and mother will continue to work to assist in supporting the family.

(c) Reenlistees. Reenlistees may be enlisted without regard to number of dependents, subject to the limitations of paragraph (d) of this section.

(d) Women with minor dependents. (1) Women who are parents by birth or adoption of a child under 18 years of age of whom they have personal or legal custody may not be enlisted or reenlisted. Women who have surrendered all rights to custody and control of natural children through formal adoption may be accepted for enlistment, provided that evidence in the form of a copy of the decree of adoption is submitted. This document will be attached to original of DD Form 4.

(2) Women who are stepparents of a child under 18 years of age and if the child is within their household for a period of more than 30 days a year may not be enlisted or reenlisted.

(3) Women who have personal custody of any child under 18 years of age may not be enlisted or reenlisted.

(4) Women who have had an illegitimate pregnancy, may not be enlisted or reenlisted.

§ 871.6 Periods of enlistment and grade—(a) Enlistment—(1) Men. Enlistments are authorized for 4 or 6 years at the option of the person enlisting or reenlisting.

(2) Women. Enlistments are authorized for 3, 4 or 6 years at the option of the person enlisting or reenlisting.

(b) Grade. Applicants are enlisted in the permanent grade to which they are authorized. Persons authorized a higher temporary grade will be promoted to that grade at the time and place of enlistment.

§ 871.7 Miscellaneous instructions—

(a) Transportation and subsistence—(1) General. Applicants for enlistment will be furnished transportation and meal tickets, if available, for travel from the place where these applicants make application for enlistment, or from their homes to the place of physical examination and/or place of acceptance for enlistment, including return travel in the event the applicant is rejected or returns home to await further orders.

(2) Rejected applicants. Return transportation and subsistence from the recruiting main stations to point of initial acceptance will be furnished in accordance with existing regulations to rejected applicants and to those acceptable applicants who cannot be enlisted due to quota or other administrative restrictions. Return transportation will not be furnished an applicant who concealed disqualification and, as a result, was later rejected as an applicant for enlistment.

(3) Applicants discharged for physical disability. Government transportation and meals or meal tickets will not be furnished from recruiting office, recruiting main station, or other place of physical examination for applicants who have been discharged from last active service by reason of physical disability. Such applicants desiring enlistment will be informed that they must defray their own expenses in connection with travel for physical examination.

(4) Applicant declining or failing to enlist. An applicant for enlistment who received transportation, lodging, subsistence, or monetary allowance in place thereof at Government expense or who is responsible for the loss or destruction of Government property and then declines or fails to enlist will be requested to refund the costs involved.

Sec. 7, N $\frac{1}{2}$ SE $\frac{1}{4}$.

3. The jurisdiction granted by this order is subject to the following conditions:

(a) That the interests of the United States in all minerals, including oil and gas, in the lands shall remain under jurisdiction of the Department of the Interior, and no disposition of, or exploration for such minerals shall be made except under the applicable mining and mineral leasing laws, and then only after such modification of the provisions of this order, with concurrence of the Department of the Army, as may be necessary to permit such disposition.

(b) All hunting, fishing and trapping on the lands shall be in accordance with the fish and game laws of the State of Arizona. The general public shall enjoy the same rights to hunt, fish or trap on the lands as may be afforded to military personnel, their dependents or employees of the Department of Defense.

(c) Upon termination of jurisdiction of the Department of the Army over the lands, that Department shall certify to the Department of the Interior that the lands have been decontaminated of unexploded ordnance or other objects or materials potentially dangerous to users of the lands, and such certification shall be an essential prerequisite to the re-assumption by the Department of the Interior of jurisdiction over the lands.

(d) The Department of the Army may close roads or trails commonly in public use but only at times when the public safety or national security as determined by the Commanding Officer in charge requires such closure, and appropriate warning notices shall be kept posted during such times.

(e) Grazing use of the lands, if determined by the Commanding Officer in charge to be compatible with their use for military purposes, shall be administered by the Bureau of Land Management under the provisions of the Taylor Grazing Act of June 28, 1934 (48 Stat. 315, 43 U. S. C. 315, et seq.) as amended.

(f) The Department of the Army shall take all necessary precautions to prevent and suppress brush and range fires occurring within the withdrawn lands, or
