NOTICE

The Department strongly recommends Customers conduct their own research of its records. A full service Public Records area is provided for your convenience and staff is available as needed to give helpful instructions. Information is maintained in paper files, computer records and microfiche. Copies can be made at a minimal cost. If you are requesting information for commercial purposes or are employed by a title company for title insurance purposes, it is in your client's best interest that you conduct your own research. If you are not able to visit the Public Records area may we suggest hiring a title company in Arizona that can conduct the research on your behalf.
