WATER CONSERVATION PLAN NOTICE

RECEIVED

MAR 18 2022

Pursuant to Arizona Revised Statutes (A.R.S.) § 45-189.01, a person who is entitled to use surface water may include a surface water right or claim in a Water Conservation Plan and file a Water Conservation Plan Notice with the Director of the Arizona Department of Water Resources (Department). According to section 45-189.03, if certain requirements are satisfied, the conservation of water pursuant to a properly filed Water Conservation Plan Notice "does not constitute an abandonment or forfeiture of the water conserved." However, "a person may not accrue long-term storage credits for any water that is conserved in a Water Conservation Plan."

A Water Conservation Plan Notice must designate the duration of the Water Conservation Plan for up to ten years. The person filing the Water Conservation Plan Notice "may file a subsequent notice for some or all of the water rights and/or claims before expiration of the designated time and may file subsequent Water Conservation Plan Notices for one or more periods of up to ten years each." The Water Conservation Plan will be posted on the Department's website.
