

Alternative Path to Designation of Assured Water Supply (ADAWS): Second Informal Public Meeting on Rulemaking

Arizona Department of Water Resources

May 1, 2024

Agenda

- Introductions
- Welcome & Logistics
- Stakeholders' Questions and Comments
- Closing

Welcome

- The purpose of today's meeting is to allow stakeholders to provide comments and questions on the ADAWS draft Rules.
- On April 9, 2024, ADWR published and made available the ADAWS Draft Rules.
- ADWR presented on the ADAWS draft Rules on April 22, 2024, and will not be presenting on the draft Rules again today. The draft Rules and meeting recording are available on ADWR's website.
- ADWR had a meeting with AZ Water Co on April 30, 2024, to discuss the ADAWS draft Rules possibly applying in the Pinal AMA, and discussions with Pinal stakeholders will continue throughout this informal process.
- ADWR requests that comments and questions, not provided today, be submitted no later than May 3, 2024, at 5:00PM.

Logistics

- Today's meeting is not a formal public hearing.
- This meeting is being broadcast via webinar and is being recorded. The recording will be made available online at: azwater.gov/how-do-i/find-info/alternative-path-assured-water-supply-public-comments
- Please keep your phone or audio connection on mute.

Public Comments and Questions Guidelines

- To ensure that everyone who wishes to has the opportunity to ask a question or make a comment, ADWR may limit time for each speaker. Larger groups wishing to present the same message are encouraged to designate a single representative.
- If you wish to provide comments or questions, please fill out a speaker card, located at the entrance, and return it to ADWR staff. Online attendees should complete the questionnaire at the link provided in the chat.
- Please come to the microphone at the podium to ask your question. This allows those on the webinar to hear and participate fully.
- We will call people up in order that we receive cards, alternating those in-person with those online.
